

1. Scope of Application

The respectively effective version of these general rules/terms of use are valid for every public thoroughfare, building and facility, incl. the Imperial Lawn (Kaiserwiese), which is managed by Prater Wien GmbH and not leased to third parties.

The directives stipulated by these general rules/terms of use of Prater Wien GmbH and those persons authorised by Prater Wien GmbH (hereinafter called "Organ(s)") must be obeyed unconditionally.

2. Public Areas

- 2.1. Every publicly accessible thoroughfare, building and facility is available to be used in an orderly and habitual manner in line with the rules.
- 2.2. Prater Wien GmbH reserves the right to close the area partially or completely in the case of an elevated level of risk. This closure can be limited to places or time frames, and any violation thereof can lead to a limited or unlimited ban.

3. Use Subject to Authorisation

Utilisation of Vienna's Volksprater in a manner that extends beyond the orderly and habitual use in line with the rules requires explicit written authorisation from Prater Wien GmbH. Such kinds of utilisation include:

- 3.1. Affixing or setting up poster stands of any kind in public areas; film, audio and photographic recordings for commercial purposes as well as events of any kind, congregations, demonstrations etc. Authorisations must be discussed with Prater Wien GmbH sufficiently in advance so that the required agreement with the responsible authorities can be reached, an escort can be provided and the necessary measures regarding security and safety can be prepared. Prater Wien GmbH reserves the right, though, to revoke already-issued authorisations with immediate effect at any time, in particular for security and safety reasons

- 3.2. Surveys, campaigns to collect signatures, advertising and propaganda measures, the distribution of leaflets and flyers as well as campaigns to collect money;
- 3.3. Wearing and distributing any kind of (commercial, political) advertising materials;
- 3.4. Street art and musical performances.
- 3.5. Exceeding the customary noise threshold for a given location in terms of Art. 21a WVG (Vienna Event Act, Wiener Veranstaltungsgesetz) is prohibited under any circumstances whatsoever and will result in the revocation of an already-issued authorisation.
- 3.6. Any commercial usufruct and activity within Vienna's Volksprater, in particular street sales, the erection of stalls, booths etc., as well as the display of goods or services within the scope of a voluntary donation.
- 3.7. Camping or staying overnight, as well as setting up and using sleeping bags, setting up and using tents; parking passenger cars, coach buses, estate cars, motorhomes, automobile campers or camper trailers for residential purposes, as well as their use as a residence (sleeping).

The applicant is responsible for attaining a potentially required official permit, authorisation and/or commercial concession, and these are to be provided to Prater Wien GmbH, including the required inspection documentation.

4. Vehicle Ban

- 4.1. The general ban on driving single-track and multi-track motorised vehicles must be observed in the entire area. In addition, the effective terms of use and traffic regulations, as well as time-related regulations, must be followed.
- 4.2. It is only permitted to drive in the area on the basis of an explicit authorisation issued by Prater Wien GmbH, drivers must drive with utmost care and at a maximum velocity of 10 kilometres per hour and driving is only permitted in accordance with the "Driving Regulation" (Fahrregelung) of Prater Wien GmbH.
- 4.3. Access via public areas generally reserved for passenger transport outside of the times stipulated by the Driving Regulation requires a special authorisation issued by Prater Wien GmbH.
- 4.4. The stipulations of the Highway Code (Straßenverkehrsordnung) apply accordingly.
- 4.5. Riding electric vehicles (e-scooters, e-bikes, Segways, hoverboards, golf carts etc.) is prohibited, except the vehicles of Vienna's Volksprater for operational purposes.

---	--	----------------------------

- 4.6. While using single or multi-track bicycles, users must pay attention to pedestrians. If it is not possible to ride safely due a high number of pedestrians, the use of all vehicles is forbidden and the vehicles must be pushed.
- 4.7. Use of the area for commercial personal promotion is prohibited.
- 4.8. Parking bans, in particular regarding specially designated spaces for the disabled, must be observed. Illegally parked vehicles as well as vehicles without an access permit will be reported to the police for trespassing. Blocking emergency, fire brigade and escape routes will also result in a vehicle being towed.

5. Behaviour in Vienna's Volksprater

- 5.1. Emergency exits and exit routes, access to emergency facilities, entrances and exits, access to lifts, upward and downward-leading stairs and the areas in the vicinity of automatic doors and windscreens must be kept clear.
- 5.2. Misuse of the emergency facilities is strictly prohibited.
- 5.3. Any items found must be turned in to the Information Booth (entrance to Riesenradplatz) and will be dealt with according to legal regulations.
- 5.4. The Information Booth (entrance to Riesenradplatz) has been designated the meeting point for missing persons: Tel.: +43 1 729 2000-200
- 5.5. Loitering, begging and soliciting are prohibited and punishable by a personal ban.
- 5.6. Visitors who breach the peace, behave aggressively, damage objects, are evidently in a drug or alcohol-induced impaired state or bother other people will be directed to leave by the Organs and a personal ban will be issued.
- 5.7. In line with legal regulations, a general alcohol and smoking ban applies to minors in the entire area of Vienna's Volksprater.
- 5.8. Prater Wien GmbH explicitly reserves the right in this context to have staff and security personal from Prater Wien GmbH and authorities conduct on-site checks. Potential breaches will be reported to the police, and alcoholic beverages will be confiscated.
- 5.9. Organising games of chance or skill (except in specially reserved locations) is prohibited.
- 5.10. Except in the case of authorised events, ball games and other sporting activities are prohibited.
- 5.11. Barbecuing, open flame and similar situations are prohibited for safety reasons.
- 5.12. In case animals are brought along, Art. 5 of the Vienna Animal Husbandry Act (Wiener Tierhaltegesetz) applies accordingly. Pet owners are liable for any disturbance or mess caused by their pet. Dogs must be walked on a lead, and dog breeds included in the list of potentially dangerous breeds must also wear a muzzle without exception.

- 5.13. Dog droppings must be disposed of by the animal's owner by using a suitable, publicly available bag ("Sackerl für's Gackerl").
- 5.14. It is prohibited to feed the birds.
- 5.15. Those visitors who create an exceptional mess must clean up the mess themselves and can be obliged to pay appropriate compensation for the damages caused if they do not do so.
- 5.16. Urinating in public is forbidden in the entire area of Vienna's Volksprater and the Imperial Lawn (Kaiserwiese). Breaches can lead to being directed to leave the area.
- 5.17. Those visitors who cause damage to buildings or facilities of Vienna's Volksprater must report them immediately to Prater Wien GmbH. Otherwise, they will be reported to the police. The expenses incurred to remedy the damage by means of cleaning and/or repairs will be charged to the visitors who cause it.
- 5.18. Visitors and businesses are urged to dispose of rubbish and waste in the specially designated facilities, and the public rubbish bins are reserved specially for visitors' needs.
